CLAUSE

clause

□ A group of words which forms part of a sentence , and contains a subject and a predicate of its own , is called a clause.

Ex. He has a chain which is made of gold.

➤ Here "which is made" is not a phrase because it has a subject (which) and a predicate (is made of gold).

Since it has a subject and a predicate, it resembles a sentence, yet it is not a complete sentence, because it forms only part of a sentence.

How to understand subject and predicate .

1. Subject

2. Predicate .

Example

☐ Kalpana is bathing in the river .

clause

❖ Each clause has its own subject & predicate.

Ex. 1. We cannot start while it is raining.

2. people who are honest are respected.

3. I think that you have made a mistake.

clause

In a sentence, there are two of kinds of clause.

1. Principal (main) clause.

2. Subordinate clause.

The subordinate clause is further of three kinds.

1. Noun clause

2. Adjective clause

3. Adverb clause.

Noun Clause

Noun clause

- ❑ A noun clause is a group of words which contain a subject and a predicate of its own and dose the work of a noun.

Ex. ① I expect to get a price.(Expect what)

- The first grow of words, "to get a price." Does not contain a subject and a predicate of its own. It is , therefore a phrase.

This phrase is the object of the verb expect and hence does the work of a noun. It is , therefore a noun phrase.

Noun clause

Ex. ② I expect that I shall get a price.

➤ The second group of words, that I shall get a price , contains a subject and predicate of its own. It is , therefore a clause.

This clause is the object of the verb expect and so does the work of a noun. We therefore call it a noun clause.

Noun clause

Ex. ③ That you have come please & me (what pleases ?) .

- The third group of words, that you have come, is the subject of the verb pleases , it therefore, does the work of a noun and is called a noun clause.

Noun clause

- A noun clause is a group of words that does the work of a noun. It usually works as the subject or the object in a sentences.

- Ex.
1. I fear that I shall fail
 2. I hope that I shall get a price.
 - 3 . That you should say this is very strange.
 4. That you had spoiled the game annoyed me.

Adjective Clause

Adjective clause

- An adjective clause is a group of words which contains a subject and a predicate of its own. and does the work of an adjective.

Ex. 1. The umbrella with a broken handle is mine. (Which umbrella?)

- The first group of words, with a broken handle, describe the umbrella that is , it qualifies the noun umbrella and does the work of an adjective. It is what we call an adjective phrase.

Adjective clause

Ex. 2. The umbrella which has a broken handle is mine.

- The second group of words, which has a broken handle, also describe the umbrella and so does the work of an adjective , but because it contains a subject & a predicate of its own, it is called an adjective clause.

Adjective clause

The adjective clause is of two types.

graph TD; A[The adjective clause is of two types.] --- B[1. Defining adjective clause.]; A --- C[2. Non defining adjective clause.]

1. Defining adjective clause.

2. Non defining adjective clause.

1. Defining adjective clause

1. Defining adjective clause

➤ A defining adjective clause (or relative clause) is a clause that restricts , limits , or defining more clearly the antecedent noun or pronoun.

- Ex.
1. The noun who had cheated me was arrested by the police yesterday.
 2. The book which you see on the table cost me twenty rupees.

2. Non-defining adjective clause

2. Non-defining adjective clause

□ A non - defining adjective clause (or relative clause) is a clause that merely give some additional information.

Ex. 1. The teacher sent for the boy , who (= and he) come at once.

2. I gave him a rupee , which (= and it) was all I had with me.

Non - defining adjective clause.

NOTE

- defining clauses are separated from the main clause by commas.

Ex. 1. My brother who is a doctor has gone to Japan.

My brother , who is a doctor , has gone to Japan.

- The first sentence implies that the speaker has several brothers , and the clause who is a doctor distinguishes a particular one of them .
- In second , the clause does not define and the implication is that the speaker has only one brother .

Non - defining adjective clause.

➤ An adjective clause does the work of an adjective. It qualifies some noun or pronoun in the main clauses.

Ex. 1. I know the place where he was born .

2. She is the girl whose bicycle has been stolen.

Adverb
Clause

Adverb clause

□ An adverb clause is a group of words which contains a subject and a predicate of its own , and does the work of an adverb

Ex. 1. The stolen property was found where the dacoits hiding place .

2. The stolen property was found in the dacoits were accustomed to hide.

➤ Group of words in sentences 1 & 2 do the work of an adverb.

Adverb clause

But the group of words in sentence (2) is a clause because it has a subject (the dacoits) and a predicate (were accustomed to hide where) of its own.

While the group of words in sentence (1) is a phrase.

- An adverb clause does the work of an adverb. It indicates the time , place , manner , reason , purpose , results or condition related to the action mentioned in the main clause.

Adverb clause

1. Time

2. Place

3. Manner

4. Reason

5. Purpose

6. Results

7. Condition

Adverb clause

Ex. 1. Time

- As soon as he heard the news , he come to me .

2. Place

- They can stay where they are.

Adverb clause

Ex. 3. Manner

- You may do as you please.

4. Reason

- He failed because he didn't work hard.

Adverb clause

Ex. 5. Purpose

- We eat so that we may live.

6. Result

- It was so cold that many people died .
- He is so good a man that all respect him.

Adverb clause

Ex. 7. Condition

- If I like it , I shall buy it.
- You will succeed if you work hard.

(Principal)

Ex. Karan informed that his neighbour was ill.

Principal

Sub - Ordinate

Complex sentence

- ❑ A sentence that contains a principal clause and a sub-ordinate clause is called a complex clause.

Principal clause:-

- Principal clause is the clause that makes good sense and can stand by itself.

Sub-ordinate clause:-

- Sub-ordinate clause is the clause that does not make good sense and can't stand by itself.

Example -

- 1. She went because she was invited.
- 2. She is the girl who sings very well.
- 3. The train had arrived before I reached the station.
- 4. I know the boy who was sitting beside you.

Note

1. A sub-ordinate clause can be placed in the beginning of a sentence, in the middle, or at the end.

Example -

1. where there is a will , there is a way.

2. The train had left when we reached the station.

3. Jaipur, which is the capital of Rajasthan, is a city of places .

Note

2. Remember that a sub-ordinate clause can never be an interrogative

Example -

1. Who are those people ?

- Do you know who those people are . ()
- Do you know who are those people ? ()

Note

Example -

2. Where does he live ?

- I don't know where he lives ()
- I don't know where does he live ()

Note

Example -

3. Why did she go there ?

- Do you know why she went there ()
- Do you know why did she go there ()

Note

- Note that in each of the above sentences the subordinate clause begins with a wh-word which serves as a link between the principal clause and the subordinate clause .
- But for yes/no question , only if or whether can be used as the link word .

Note

Example -

1. Is tom at home ?

- Do you know if tom is at home ?
- Do you know whether tom is at home ?

2. Has Raman got a new car ?

Example -

- Can you tell me if Raman has got a new car ?
- Can you tell me whether Raman has got a new car ?

3. Did Dev tell the truth ?

- Do you know If Dev told the truth ?
- Do you know whether Dev told the truth ?

Point to remember

The principal clause can be in any form

- Assertive (affirmative & Negative)
